

Statement of Faith

God Is Triune

There is one God: infinite, eternal, almighty and perfect in holiness, truth and love. In the unity of the godhead, there are three Persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, co-existent, co-equal, and co-eternal. The Father is not the Son and the Son is not the Holy Spirit, yet each is truly Deity. One God — Father, Son and Holy Spirit — is the foundation of Christian faith and life. (Deuteronomy 6:4, 2 Corinthians 13:14)

God The Father

God the Father is the Creator of heaven and earth. By His word and for His glory, He freely and supernaturally created the world out of nothing. Through the same word, He daily sustains all His creatures. He rules over all and, together with the Son and the Spirit, is the only Sovereign. His plans and purposes cannot be thwarted. He is faithful to every promise, works all things together for good to those who love Him and in His unfathomable grace gave His Son Jesus Christ for mankind's redemption. He made all things for the praise of His glory and intends for humanity, in particular, to live in fellowship with Himself. (Genesis 1:1, 2:7; Exodus 3:14, 6:2-3; Deuteronomy 6:6, 32:1; Psalms 19:1-3; John 4:24, 5:26, 14:6-13; Acts 1:7; Romans 8:14-15; 1 Corinthians 8:6; Galatians 4:6; Ephesians 4:6; Colossians 1:15; 1 Timothy 1:17; Hebrews 11:6, 12:9; 1 Peter 1:17; 1 John 5:7)

Jesus Christ

Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, is the eternal Word made flesh, supernaturally conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary. He is perfect in nature, teaching and obedience. He is fully God and fully man. He was always with God and is God. Through Him all things came into being and were created. He was before all things and in Him all things hold together by the word of His power. He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born over all creation and in Him dwells the fullness of the Godhead bodily. He is the only Savior for the sins of the world having shed His blood and died a vicarious death on Calvary's cross. By His death in our place, He revealed the divine love and upheld divine justice, removing our guilt and reconciling us to God. Having redeemed us from sin, the third day He rose bodily from the grave, victorious over death and the powers of darkness and for a period of 40 days appeared to over 500 witnesses performing many convincing proofs of His resurrection. He ascended into heaven where, at God's right hand, He intercedes for His people and rules as Lord over all, as we await His return. He is the Head of His body, the church, and should be adored, loved, served and obeyed by all. (Philippians 2:9-11; Matthew 1:21; John 1:1-3; Luke 1:34-35; 1 Peter 2:22; Luke 7:1-17; John 14:1-7; John 10:17-18; Luke 22:47-23:56; Luke 24:1-52; Acts 1:9-10; Hebrews 7:25, 9:24, Romans 8:34; 1 John 2:1-2; Romans 5:9; Hebrews 9:22; Revelation 1:5)

The Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of life, convicts the world of sin, righteousness and judgment and empowers and guides believers. Through the proclamation of the gospel, He persuades humanity to repent of their sins and confess Jesus as Lord. By the same Spirit a person is led to trust in divine mercy. The Holy Spirit unites believers to Jesus Christ in faith, brings about the new birth and dwells within the regenerate. The Holy Spirit has come to glorify the Son who in turn came to glorify the Father. He will lead the church into a right understanding and rich application of the truth of God's Word. He is to be respected, honored and worshipped as God the Third Person of the Trinity. (John 16:8-12, 2 Corinthians 3:6, 1 Corinthians 12:12-14, Romans 8:9, Ephesians 5:18, Acts 1:8, Galatians 5:16)

The Scriptures

We accept the Bible, including the 39 books of the Old Testament and the 27 books of the New Testament, as the written, living Word of God, relevant to all ages. The Bible is an essential and authentic testimony of God's self-disclosure to humankind. It leads us to salvation through faith in Jesus Christ. Being given by God, the Scriptures are both fully and verbally inspired by God and serve as the authoritative and normative rule and guide of all Christian life, practice and doctrine. All believers are exhorted to study and diligently apply the Scriptures to their lives. With guidance from the Holy Spirit, the Bible is to be interpreted according to its context and purpose and with respect to its entirety. (2 Timothy 3:16-17, 2 Peter 1:20-21)

Humanity

God made humanity — male and female — in His own image, as the crown of creation, that each person might glorify Him through enjoying fellowship with Him. Tempted by Satan, humanity rebelled against God. This resulted in estrangement from God, and apart from a special work of grace, utterly incapable of returning to God. Man's only hope of redemption and being reunited with God is through salvation in Christ alone. (Genesis 1:26, 2:20; Romans 5:12-21; Romans 6:20; 1 Corinthians 2:14)

The Gospel

Jesus Christ is the gospel. The good news is revealed in His birth, life, death, resurrection and ascension. Christ's crucifixion is the heart of the gospel; His resurrection is the power of the gospel and His ascension is the glory of the gospel. Christ's death is a substitutionary and propitiatory sacrifice to God for our sins. It satisfies the demands of God's holy justice and appeases His holy wrath. It also demonstrates His mysterious love and reveals His amazing grace. Jesus Christ is the only mediator between God and humanity. There is no other name by which humans must be saved. At the heart of all sound doctrine is the cross of Jesus Christ and the infinite privilege that redeemed sinners have of glorifying God because of what He has accomplished. Therefore, we want all that takes place in our hearts, churches and ministries to proceed from and be related to the gospel. (

Response to The Gospel

The proper response to the gospel is faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ, a faith that is naturally accompanied by repentance from sin. Biblical repentance is characterized by a changed life, and saving faith is evidenced by kingdom service or works. While neither repentance nor works save, unless a person is willing to deny himself, pick up his cross and follow Christ, he or she cannot become His disciple. This gospel of grace is to be sincerely preached to all people in all nations. (Ephesians 2:8-10, John 1:12, Ephesians 1:7)

Inheritance Through the Gospel

Salvation, the free gift of God, is provided by grace alone, through faith alone, because of Christ alone, for the glory of God alone. Anyone turning from sin in repentance and looking to Christ and His substitutionary death receives the gift of eternal life and is declared righteous by God as a free gift. The righteousness of Christ is imputed to them. They are justified and fully accepted by God. Through Christ's atonement for sin an individual is reconciled to God as Father and becomes His child. The believer is forgiven the debt of his sin and, via the miracle of regeneration, liberated from the law of sin and death into the freedom of God's Spirit. (John 6:37-40, 10:27-30; 1 Peter 1:5; Romans 13:13-14; Galatians 5:13; Titus 2:11-15)

Sanctification

The Holy Spirit is the active agent in our sanctification and seeks to produce His fruit in us as our minds are renewed and we are conformed to the image of Christ. Though indwelling sin remains a reality, as we are led by the Spirit, we grow in the knowledge of the Lord, freely keeping His commandments and endeavoring to so live in the world that all people may see our good works and glorify our Father who is in heaven. All believers are exhorted to persevere in the faith knowing they will have to give an account to God for their every thought, word and deed. The spiritual disciplines, especially Bible study, prayer, worship and confession, are a vital means of grace in this regard. Nevertheless, the believer's ultimate confidence to persevere is based in the sure promise of God to preserve His people until the end, which is most certain. (Romans 6:6, 1 Corinthians 6:11, 2 Corinthians 5:17, 2 Thessalonians 2:13, Hebrews 10:10, Romans 12:1-2, Galatians 2:20, 2 Peter 3:18)

Empowered by The Spirit

The Holy Spirit empowers believers for Christian witness and service. The promise of the Father is freely available to all who believe in Jesus Christ, thereby enabling them to exercise the powers of the age to come in ministry and mission. The Holy Spirit desires to continually fill each believer with power to witness, and imparts His supernatural gifts for the edification of the Body and the work of ministry in the world. All the gifts of the Holy Spirit at work in the church of the first century are available today and are to be earnestly desired and practiced in an orderly manner. The gifts are essential in the mission of the Church in the world today. (John 14:15-17, 26; Romans 8:2-6, 13, 26; Ephesians 5:18; Galatians 5:16-17, 22-23;

The Church

God, by His Word and Spirit, creates the Church, calling sinful people out of the whole human race into the fellowship of Christ's Body. By the same Word and Spirit, He guides and preserves that new redeemed humanity. The church is not a religious institution or denomination. Rather, the Church universal is made up of those who have become genuine followers of Jesus Christ and have personally accepted the gospel. The Church exists to worship and glorify God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It also exists to serve Him by faithfully doing His will on the earth. This involves a commitment to see the gospel preached, churches planted, helping the sick, loving on the less fortunate, and sharing the Gospel to the lost for His glory. The ultimate mission of the Church is worship and the means by which this is accomplished is the making of disciples through the preaching and embracing of the gospel. When God transforms human nature, this then becomes the chief means of society's transformation. Upon conversion, newly redeemed men and women are added to a local church in which they devote themselves to teaching, fellowship, the Lord's Supper and prayer. All members of the Church universal are to be a vital and committed part of a local church. In this context, they are called to walk out the

New Covenant as the people of God and demonstrate the reality of the kingdom of God. The ascended Christ has given gift ministries to the church (including prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers) for the equipping of Christ's body that it might mature and grow. Through the gift ministries, all members of the church are to be nurtured and equipped for the work of the ministry. In the context of the local church, God's people receive pastoral care and leadership and the opportunity to employ their God-given gifts in His service in relation to one another and to the world. (Revelation 5:9, Hebrews 3:6, 1 Corinthians 3:16-17, Ephesians 1:22-23, Revelation 19:7-9, Hebrews 10:24-25, Matthew 5:13).

Ordinances of The Church

Water baptism is for those who have placed their faith in Christ and are choosing to follow Him. (Acts 8:35-38, 16:1-15) It was commanded by Jesus and it identifies us with his death and resurrection. (Matthew 28:19, Romans 6:1-4) Therefore, in obedience to Christ's command and as a testimony to God, the church, oneself and the world, a believer should be baptized in water in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Water baptism is a visual and symbolic demonstration of a person's union with Christ in the likeness of His death and resurrection. It signifies that his former way of life has been put to death and vividly depicts a person's release from the mastery of sin. As with water baptism, the Lord's Supper is to be observed only by those who have become genuine followers of Christ. This ordinance symbolizes the breaking of Christ's body and the shedding of His blood on our behalf, and is to be observed repeatedly throughout the Christian life as a sign of continued participation in the atoning benefits of Christ's death. As we partake of the Lord's Supper with an attitude of faith and self-examination, we remember and proclaim the death of Christ, receive spiritual nourishment for our souls, and signify our unity with other members of Christ's body. (Acts 8:35-38, 16:1-15; Matthew 28:19; Romans 6:1-4; Luke 22:17-20; 1 Corinthians 11:23-30).

Marriage

We believe that the term "marriage" has only one meaning, and that is marriage sanctioned by God, which joins one man and one woman in a single, exclusive, covenantal union, as outlined in both the Old and New Testament. (Genesis 2:22-24, Ephesians 5:22-27, Matthew 19:4-6, Hebrews 13:4, Mark 10:6-9)

The Consummation

The consummation of all things includes the future, physical, visible, personal and glorious return of Jesus Christ, the resurrection of the dead and the translation of those alive in Christ, the judgment of the just and unjust, and the fulfillment of Christ's kingdom in the new heavens and the new earth. In the consummation, Satan with his hosts and all those outside Christ are finally separated from the benevolent presence of God, enduring eternal punishment, but the righteous, in glorious bodies, shall live and reign with Him forever, serving Him and giving Him unending praise and glory. Then shall the eager expectation of creation be fulfilled, and the whole earth shall proclaim the glory of God Who makes all things new. (1 Thessalonians 4:12-18, 2 Corinthians 5:8-10, Revelation 20:14-15, 1 Corinthians 15:35-44, 2 Corinthians 5:6-8)
